

THE CANTEEN

Chef de Partie Role Available

About Us

The Canteen is a vibrant community café/restaurant within the Old Hospital Hub in Southwold. We take pride in serving fresh, locally sourced dishes, house-made cakes, and a variety of preserves, condiments, and accompaniments made from scratch.

We have been recognised nationally, featuring in publications such as The Financial Times, The Times, Waitrose Magazine, and on BBC's Rick Stein's Food Stories. Known for our delicious, ethically sourced food and commitment to community, we are looking for a skilled Chef de Partie with a hardworking attitude and creative flair to join our team.

This role is ideal for an experienced chef looking for a better work-life balance (no evenings, four-day week, Saturdays off) or a young chef eager to develop their skills in a dynamic and supportive environment.

Role Details

- Full-time role (four days per week: Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, and Sunday)
- 8-hour shifts (8am–4pm)
- Salary: £13.21 per hour

Key Responsibilities

- Prepare and cook high-quality dishes from fresh, seasonal ingredients
- Assist with breakfast and lunch service in a fast-paced environment
- Bake cakes and other baked goods in-house
- Maintain excellent kitchen hygiene and organisation
- Manage stock rotation, ordering, and inventory
- Ensure compliance with food safety, health, and allergen regulations
- Contribute to menu development and bring creative ideas to reduce food waste

What We Offer

- A work-life balance – No evenings, no Saturdays!
- A creative role – Work with fresh, seasonal ingredients and contribute to menu development
- The chance to be part of an award-winning café featured in national media
- A supportive and collaborative team in a community-focused environment
- Opportunities for growth, with extra shifts available during peak periods
- Generous tips shared among the team, reflecting our busy and supportive customer base

If you're passionate about food and want to be part of a dynamic kitchen where your creativity is valued, we'd love to hear from you! Please submit your CV to info@oldhospitalcanteen.co.uk.
